THE PINK EVENT® 2016 SELECTS CHARITY PARTNERS

Ultimate women's day out expo partners with breast cancer and domestic violence nonprofit

Linthicum, MD—Living up to its commitment to support women's issue, Diamond Event Services, LLC, announced this week it will work with breast cancer charity For 3 Sisters, Inc., and domestic violence organization and center House of Ruth Maryland, Inc., as official charity partners for The Pink Event® 2016.

Both charities will be present at the women-focused expo that will be held on March 6, 2016 in the BWI Airport Marriott in Linthicum. The nonprofits will benefit from 20 percent of ticket sales, net proceeds from the event's charity raffles, and other select proceeds.

"These are two organizations that The Pink Event has hosted in the past and we are excited to highlight their work to help women, who are often in their most vulnerable states of life," said The Pink Event Founder and Diamond Event Services' CEO Tamika Josephs-Smith.

For 3 Sisters—an Olney, Md.-based nonprofit that helps those with breast cancer find much-needed support and resources—has participated in the expo for the past three years. Headquartered in Baltimore, House of Ruth Maryland helps thousands of battered women and children find safety and security for starting over. It has worked with the Pink Event as well.

Otherwise known as "the ultimate women's day out," The Pink Event is timed to celebrate women business owners during National Women's History month. Learn more about the expo and sign up for email updates at www.thepinkevent.net.

Also, be sure to follow The Pink Event on Twitter (@ThePinkEvent) and Facebook.

The Pink Event® is an annual women's expo (held every year during National Women's History month) that is committed to the advancement of women-owned, small businesses. The Expo provides a venue for these business owners to display their creativity and expand their brands in the products and services they provide.
