THE PINK EVENT® 2016 BRINGS EMPOWERMENT WITH QUALITY SPEAKERS

Ultimate women's day out will have three top-notch presenters in the Speaker Lounge

Linthicum, MD—From a sought-after image consultant and holistic nurse psychotherapist to a life coach who calls herself a “single mama with no drama,” The Pink Event® 2016 has drawn in a well-rounded group of speakers for the expo’s popular Speaker Lounge.

The women-focused expo, known as the ultimate women’s day out, will have several empowering sessions in addition to tailored shopping, raffle prizes, swag bags, live performances, and more.

On tap for the Pink Event (on March 6 from 12-5:30 p.m.), the lounge will feature:

- Cyndy Porter, who will provide seven artful techniques for creating an intentional image
- Kenya S. Ulmer, who will help cast off distractions that hold you back from your purpose in life
- And Cassandra Herbert, who will help any “super-women” see that they can break free from having create the illusion that they have it all figured out.

“What I love about this year’s line-up is that the Pink Event speakers are focused on creating the best version of you, from the inside out,” says Diamond Event Services, LLC, CEO Tamika Josephs-Smith, who created The Pink Event six years ago.

“Attendees are going to walk away from these sessions with not only great things they can do immediately to improve their lives but also the confidence and comradery that they deserve to make those changes,” she adds.

The Pink Event—which is timed to celebrate women business owners during National Women’s History month—draws in the best exhibitors of women-focused products and services to provide shopping, community networking, prizes and, fun.
